

McNaughton Collection at the Felix Goodson Library

What better way to spend a summer afternoon than stretched out on a hammock with a good book and cool drink! Felix Goodson Library (FGL) is the recipient of the McNaughton Collection that offers over 100 popular fiction and non-fiction titles to fill your summer afternoons with mystery, romance, danger, adventure, thrills, laughter and exotic travels.

The McNaughton collection is a rotating, rental collection of books from the New York Times bestseller list. It is housed in the lobby of the Library. Books are identified with a green stripe at the bottom of the spine and the dust jackets are left on the books. Checkout procedures follow the same FGL Circulation Policy:

- Two-week loan period with one 2-week renewal.
- Overdue fines are .25 cents per day.
- Lost items are valued at a minimum of $73.00 each.
- Available to current WBC card holders and current Community Patron card holders.

You can browse the McNaughton titles in the FGL online catalog; choose Call Number, type McN, or preview the list online, or look at them on the shelves across from the Circulation Desk in the Library Lobby. Additional titles are added frequently, so check back often. FGL is making connections with our community and campus to meet recreational and academic information needs.
